An activity to learn about one another

Learning about Each Other: My Summer Vacation T-shirt

We start by the students sharing what they did during this summer. We then talk about how often when people do something fun, they get a souvenir of the memory – sometimes in the form of a t-shirt. We then make a paper t-shirt and depict one of our favorite memories from the summer or several of our favorite memories. The students then write about their summer vacation.

Note: to increase sturdiness, copy the t-shirt template on white construction paper.
